

One More Time Finds – Return Policy

Effective Date: September 1, 2025

Last Updated: September 1, 2025

Thank you for shopping with One More Time Finds. Because many of our items are thrifted, vintage, or one-of-a-kind, please review our return policy carefully before purchasing.

1. All Sales Are Final

All sales are considered final unless otherwise noted in the item description. Please read each listing carefully for details about product condition, size, and features before placing your order.

2. Damaged or Incorrect Items

If your item arrives damaged or significantly different from its description, please contact us within 7 days of delivery. We may request photos of the item and packaging to resolve the issue.

3. Refunds or Replacements

In cases where a refund or replacement is approved, we will process it promptly once the issue is verified. Refunds are issued to the original payment method.

4. Non-Returnable Items

Due to their unique nature, thrifted, vintage, upcycled, and clearance items are not eligible for return unless stated otherwise in the product description.

5. Shipping Costs

Shipping fees are non-refundable. Return shipping costs (if applicable) are the responsibility of the customer, unless the return is due to our error.
